Fractional Taylor formula

Maria Manfredini
(Università degli Studi di Modena e Reggio Emilia)

We consider a class of non-local ultraparabolic Kolmogorov operators and a suitable fractional Hölder spaces that take into account the intrinsic subriemannian geometry induced by the operators. We prove an intrinsic fractional Taylor formula in such spaces with global bounds for the remainder given in terms of the norm naturally associated to the differential operator.